

Within the framework of the Odysseus program the Faculty of Theology and Religious Studies at KU Leuven (Belgium) is actively looking for junior and senior candidates with an excellent research profile and track record for a research-oriented appointment in the field of Eastern Religions.

For all information about this call, KU Leuven research and living in Leuven, see <https://www.kuleuven.be/english/research/support/nf/calls/odysseus2020>

Information about the Faculty's research: <https://theo.kuleuven.be/en/research/>

Based on track record and professional experience a successful candidate will be appointed at the level of TT-junior, BOFZAP (research professor) or senior professor. The position is research-oriented and a successful candidate will receive a substantial research budget (100-200K/yr for juniors (level postdoc-TT-lecturer), 400K/yr or more for seniors (Associate Professor or higher).

Researchers that would be interested in this position are asked to contact (preferably with cv and publication list)

Prof. Johan De Tavernier (Dean): johan.detavernier@kuleuven and

Prof. Johan Leemans (Vice Dean for Research): johan.leemans@kuleuven.be

Every request for information will be treated confidentially.

The deadline for the pre-application is June, 1, 2020.